UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE
DISTRICT OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Eric Searles

v.

Civil No. 02-cv-360-SM

Superintendent, Hillsborough County Jail, et al.

O R D E R

Searles has filed another in a line of requests in this case for injunctive relief. This request is (with the exception of Sargent Barnes) against persons who are not parties to the suit and upon events transpiring three years after the claims at issue. While he listed "02 CV 360-M", it appears more likely that he intended the request as a new suit.¹ In any event, his claims cannot be maintained against non-parties in the current suit. As to this case the motion is denied. The clerk is instructed to strike the document from this file and place it in a prospective new file and forward the in forma pauperis ¹If he has not exhausted his administrative remedies it must be dismissed until he does.
